About the main programs

ESL (18 hours per week)

English as a Second Language (ESL) is our most popular Intensive English Program. It combines 3 classes:

Listening & Speaking: Focuses on the conversation, pronunciation, and listening skills.

Reading & Vocabulary: Focuses on essential reading skills, line scanning, skimming, and comprehension.

Grammar & Writing: Focuses on grammar for spoken English at the beginning and intermediate levels and academic writing in the upper intermediate and advanced levels.

About the main programs

Vacation Program (13.5-15.5 hours per week)

2

The Vacation English program provides students with the opportunity to explore in and around the Los Angeles area while helping improve confidence in using English in everyday situations.

Based on LSI popular intensive ESL program, the Vacation English Program focuses on listening, speaking, grammar and reading skills, but it has less rigorous academic requirements, helping students improve while having enough time to explore California.

About the main programs

Business English (18 hours per week)

3

The Business English Program is offered at the intermediate and advanced levels and consists of three classes: Business Communications, Business Theory and Meetings, and Business Practice. This course will expose students to the language and culture of the business world, particularly in North America.

About the main programs

TOEFL® (18 hours per week)

4

The intensive TOEFL iBT® class prepares students for the iBT by presenting and practicing strategies to help them improve their reading, vocabulary, listening, speaking and writing skills. In addition, students are given practice in critical thinking and note-taking skills.

This class is beneficial for who need a TOEFL® score to get into a university or graduate school program and students who need a TOEFL® score to enter a profession in the US (such as nursing or pharmacy).

Mutual Recognition Program (MRP)

LSI has special agreement, known as "Mutual Recognition Program" (MRP), with several universities in Los Angeles. These partnerships allow students to be accepted into these institutions without the need of taking the TOEFL® exam.

Social activities

LSI has an exciting schedule full of adventures and fun activities for our students. We offer thrilling city tours, trips to the movies, and visits to museums and libraries where you can learn and have fun. Students also have the opportunity to attend baseball and soccer games, go on exciting whale-watching trips, indulge in delicious food at popular restaurants during our lunch gatherings, and enjoy lively park barbecues or beach parties.

Beach party Santa Monica.

Parties and celebrations

LSI has organized an exciting lineup of events to immerse our students in American culture while practicing English in a lively and comfortable environment. These events include holiday-themed bashes like Halloween thrills, Valentine's Day delights, and Thanksgiving feasts. LSI also likes to show our students appreciation with pizza parties and graduation celebrations.
